This Application Form is to be read in conjunction with the Grant Procedure when applying for funding by way of the grant community project purposes from the Trust.

For eligible beneficiaries, a grant may be provided for any of the following types of community project:

- 1) Infrastructure and heritage preservation;
- 2) Community development;
- 3) Health and wellbeing;
- 4) Resilience and disaster recovery;
- 5) Arts and culture (including language / dance projects);
- 6) Sporting club grants and community sporting equipment;
- 7) Environmental preservation or sustainable development;
- 8) Festivals and events.

There is no limit on the size of funds for the community project. Each application is assessed on its merits against the purpose and objectives of this policy. The policy is designed to support the wellbeing of the Aboriginal Community and beneficiaries generally.

Please complete all of the information required by this form attaching any documentation providing further information if relevant. The more information you can provide about your community project the better, as this will allow Ely to make a better-informed decision about your application. Failure to provide relevant information will result in delays to your application being assessed and could lead to it being rejected.
